Rediscover your sense of wonder with Sid the Science Kid, the new PBS KIDS science-readiness series from The Jim Henson Company and KCET.

- Meet Sid the Science Kid!
- Learn how young children can learn to think and act like scientists, and how you can help.
- Receive a family kit with fun science activity ideas!

Please note this educational opportunity is designed for adults.

Sid the Science Kid airs weekdays on PBS KIDS®.
Check local listings. Visit www.pbskids.org/sid
